COVID -19 Service Updates for Private Development Services

(Version 4 - 3/09/2021)

As a result of the COVID-19 coronavirus crisis, PWD Private Development Services has modified operations including the following:

- All Plan Review Staff are working remotely. You may contact your reviewer directly via email or reach out to pwd.planreview@phila.gov, but we are not answering our general phone line. Most staff do not have a work issued cell phone. Please conduct correspondence through email or web-based meeting platforms.
- Stormwater inspections are on-going. You may contact your stormwater inspector directly via email or their cell phone. General inspection inquiries can also be sent to pwd.planreview@phila.gov
- Except for review fees and Operations & Maintenance (O&M) Agreements, all correspondence to Private Development Services should be sent electronically. All plan submissions can be made electronically at www.pwdplanreview.org. The website includes a file share service for large documents. Non -review correspondence (such as electronically signed conditional approval letters) can be emailed to the reviewer or pwd.planreview@phila.gov.
- Version 3 Update (3/1/2021): PWD Headquarters is closed to the general public - This means no in-person meetings or permit signoffs, but as of February 16, 2021; document and fee drop-offs are permitted in limited circumstances by appointment ONLY:

Tuesdays & Thursdays ONLY
8:30am – 10am & 1pm – 3:30pm
1101 Market Street
5th Floor
Philadelphia, PA 19107

Email pwd.planreview@phila.gov by 4pm the day prior and confirm the requested drop off date, project tracking number, items to be delivered, and the name of the person and company who will be delivering the document. Visitors must wear a face covering at all times and bring photo ID for security purposes. To obtain a stamped receipt, bring a copy of your PWD invoice

Randy E. Hayman, Water Commissioner

- Version 3 Update (3/1/2021): Review Fees (Conceptual, PCSMP Submission, Hourly Review) can also be mailed to the following address:
